ORDER PROHIBITING CONTACT WITH VICTIMS AND
GOVERNMENT WITNESSES

Pursuant to the government's Motion for an Order Prohibiting Contact with Victims and Government Witnesses, and this Court having considered the entirety of the record and files herein, and no response being filed, the Court finds that the government has established good cause for the Court to prohibit the defendants from having any contact with victims and government witnesses.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendants Alexander Walls and Reginald Irvin are prohibited from having any contact, direct or indirect, with the victims referenced in the Third Superseding Indictment as Female-1, Female-2, Female-3, Female-4, Female-5,

1 and Female-6, and government witnesses including the parents and relatives of Female-1
2 through Female-6. This Order does not preclude counsel for the Defendants to request
3 defense interviews of the victims or witnesses.
